BETTER TRANSPORTATION IS SOUGHT FOR CAMBRIAN PARK

The consensus of opinion in the Cambrian Park area concerning public transportation for the area, is that it is inadequate.

This opinion, in some instances expressed quite vehemently by those residents asked, centered about the infrequent service, inconvenient hours, and the limited area serviced.

Many residents of the area said they had bought property there, on the promise of adequate bus service, availability of nearby shopping areas, and the convenient location of schools and churches.

Residents questioned indicated satisfaction with the shopping areas, were very pleased with the school system, and liked the community for its rural atmosphere, its friendly people, and its fine churches.

Roads, street lighting, and police protection are not all they should be, they said, but their biggest gripe has to do with the spotty bus service.

Mrs. Ralph, Johnson, of 14519 Bercaw Lane, who recently moved into the area, from Richmond, California, sums up the attitude of Cambrian Park residents.

"In Richmond," Mrs. Johnson said, "We had daily bus service every 10 minutes to the door, and the service around here really irks me."

"Both my children (Gay Lynne 9, and Gary, 10) attend St. Mary's parochial school in San Jose, and have to take the 7:44 a. m. bus to get there on time. In order to get home on time, they must take the four o'clock from San Jose. If they miss it, there's not another until 5:45 p. m. That makes a long day for the children and takes time that could be put to better use."

"There are times when I would like to go shopping. The only afternoon bus is at 3:28 p. m. and by the time I get anywhere it is too late to shop. There is only one car in the family, and my husband takes that to work in the morning. I definitely favor more frequent service at more convenient times."

Mrs. Joan Maltbie of 14535 Bercaw Lane said that, "Even if you go into town on the 10:33 a. m., you have to wait around in town until the 4 p. m. or 5:45 p. m. to come home, and not many housewives can afford to waste a whole day in the city to shop for a few items."

Other residents questioned had the same general opinion to offer—that there were too few busses; their arrival and departures were at inconvenient times, and that the busses served only a limited area.

But Peerless Stages Inc., which services Cambrian Park, insists that service to the area is as complete as the patronage warrants. Robert M. Bartholdi, manager, said there are six scheduled busses in the area at present, but, he outlined at a meeting of the Cambrian Park Improvement Association last week, the company will get the right expression from the people of the area. This would include additional service if they clude, Bartholdi said, signatures from at least 25 people who request and will use additional busses for a certain destination, at a time convenient to them.

"If, over a period of time, however," Bartholdi said, "the patronage for that service drops off, and it becomes financially inadvisable, the service will have to be discontinued."

Bartholdi outlined the present Peerless Stage service to the area, as follows: Three busses daily, Monday through Saturday to Los Gatos from San Jose, arrive in Cambrian Park area at Mac's Market at 7:44 a. m., 4:25 p. m., and at 6 p. m. Busses to San Jose from Los Gatos arrive at Mac's Market in the Cambrian area at 7:25 a. m., 10:33 a. m. and in the afternoon at 3:28 p. m.

Busses from San Jose to Los Gatos enter the Cambrian area at Camden avenue, to Union avenue, and return to the San Jose-Los Gatos Highway from Woodard avenue. One regular stop is scheduled at Mac's Market, but busses will stop anywhere on the route it flagged, Bartholdi said. Passengers may also transfer, with no extra charge from a northbound to a southbound on the San Jose-Los Gatos Highway, he said.

Don Findlay, president of Cambrian Park Improvement Association following Bartholdi's talk to the association last week, recently appointed a fact finding committee to poll the Cambrian Park area for a concrete expression on the transportation problem.

High School Harvest Hop For November 20

Plaid shirts and wool skirts for the girls, shirts and slacks for the boys will be in order among the western decorations of the high school "Harvest Hop" November 20, Pat Means of the Social Affairs Committee said this week.

The dance will be held in the girls' gym. The orchestra has not been selected as yet, committee members said, but there will be plenty of good music which starts at 9 p. m.

INCORPORATION BENEFITS TOLD BY L. W. HARMON

L. W. Harmon, local realtor, and former chairman of the committee for incorporation of the City of Campbell last year, was a guest and principal speaker at a meeting of the Cupertino Chamber of Commerce Tuesday in which he outlined procedures and advantages of incorporation.

Harmon told the Cupertino business leaders that the experience of the city of Campbell from its incorporation date, March 11, 1952 until the present furnished the best evidence that a small city can be operated soundly and economically at less expense than a large city.

Special district taxes, such as assessments for fire, light and water districts formerly collected by the districts now come to the city, Harmon said. He brought out that lower utility rates, absence of property tax, and city services which includes a four-man police force and public works department far exceed the total net increase for the fiscal year 1952-53.

ST. LUCY'S TALENT SHOW IN DECEMBER

Twenty acts featuring local talent under the direction of Edward Romano will be presented in the December 18 "St. Lucy's Lucian Varieties" at Santa Clara University Theater.

Nearly every act is from the Campbell area from parishioners of St. Lucy's parish.

Vladimir Fabris is in charge of the souvenir program for this show and advises all who want ads to see him at once as space is limited.

Tickets for the show may be purchased from any member of the St. Lucy's Women Club, Young ladies institute or the St. Lucy's Men's Club.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Tony Basco, at FRanklin 8-4573.

Parents Attend Children's Classes At Campbell High

Campbell parents went back to high school Tuesday night and visited classrooms of their sons and daughters' regular schedules in ten minute periods in a PTA-sponsored program under the chairmanship of Kenneth Brown.

Emphasis this year was on the language departments, and many favorable comments were passed on the special display of relics in the auditorium from France, Rome, Mexico, Spain, and the Argentine. Students arrayed in the colorful costumes of the countries lent an appropriate and festive atmosphere to the exhibit areas. A public address system over which foreign language records were played added to the occasion. Robert O'Neil, Jean Gamez and Kenneth Brown are Spanish instructors; Ernest Pope teaches the French courses, and Mrs. Flint instructs in Latin.

Serving as hostesses were senior mothers, with Mrs. Eugene Andres, chairman.

Guests of the evening were the Cambrian Home and School Club and the Cypress unit.

$50,000 MEDICAL, DENTAL BUILDING PLANNED HERE

Arrangements are complete, contract bids have been let and within thirty days construction should be underway on a new $50,000 medical-dental building on Union Avenue at the corner of Cambrian drive near the San Jose-Los Gatos road.

This is according to G. G. Green, for 35 years a practicing dentist at Salt Lake City, Utah, who plans to rent the frame, glass and stucco building to local doctors and dentists.

Green said plans for the new structure will be finished Saturday, and that construction will start as soon as bids are accepted.

Plans, now in the hands of Robert Ferguson, architect, call for a single story, hip-roof ranch style building in keeping with the best in West Valley building styles.

Land was purchased from local realtor, Joe Agostinho, who successfully petitioned the Santa Clara county planning commission for commercial zoning of the property in a recent action.

Real estate transaction was handled by Henry Jewell Realty.

Dr. Green said he was attracted to the Campbell area by its fine climate and because of its potential as one of the fastest growing communities in the state. He said that he and his wife, Mary Jane, intend to move into the area in the near future, possibly in January.

In Salt Lake City, Dr. Green was a member of the Ambassador Athletic Club, Elks Lodge, and member of American Dental, Utah State, and district dental societies.

Dean Chamberlin Speaker Monday

Dean Chamberlin, Campbell Union High School instructor, spoke to the Rotary Club here this week on the coming $2,500,000 High School bond election, and gave his impressions on the economic condition of the country in general.

Chamberlin acquainted Rotarians with aspects of the proposed bond election December 1, to build a new high school in the Cambrian Park area.

Speaker of the day was Mr. Hal Strass, San Francisco, public relations officer, American Trust Co. His topic was "Our Changing Economy." Chairman for the day was Jack Payne. Strass said that while the country is nearing the end of the World War II business boom, he felt the readjustment would be felt but little.

There have been declines in consumer goods production, and in steel, he said, but proposed government tax decreases, more loan freedom, expansion of overseas investment opportunities, sound banking system, and increased savings and insurance of individuals will do much to ease the readjustment period.

During the business portion of the Rotary meeting, it was announced by president Emerson Arends, that there would be a joint meeting with Burbank at Hotel Sainte Claire Wednesday November 18 and again on the 24th of the month.

BUCCANEERS TAKE ON WASHINGTON; BUT SWEAT OUT INDIAN-PANTHER TILT AS LEAGUE DRAWS TO CLOSE

Most observers feel that Campbell High School is over the hump in SCVAL football competition, now that the big one with Santa Clara ended in a 13-6 victory last Friday, but the Bucs still have to sweat out results of the big, big game tomorrow between Santa Clara and Fremont. The Buc victory last Friday put Campbell in a tie for first place with Fremont. Both teams now have three wins, no losses and one tie each. Fremont claims a slight edge in that they have scored 71 points against this year's league opponents to Campbell's 65. Both leaders, however, have seven points counting for valley league honors. Both teams have had 40 points scored on them by league opponents.

Santa Clara today stands in second spot among the SCVAL warriors, with three wins, one loss (last week to Campbell) and no ties, but it may be a different story tomorrow when they face the Fremont Indians, which tied Campbell a while back, 13-13.

The Santa Clarans have scored 51 points against opponents while having had 13 points scored on them, for a total of six league points.

Campbell High rooters are fervently hoping for Santa Clara to whip Fremont tomorrow, for if they do, Campbell High School will clinch a tie in the league race, provided, of course, they knock over their remaining opponents, Washington High tomorrow and Los Gatos on Thanksgiving afternoon.

On the other hand, if Fremont wins, and there are some who, if pushed into a bet will take Fremont, because Santa Clara will do battle without the services of Ron McNeil (injured in the Campbell game) they are certain of at least a tie with Campbell, if they subdue Washington, their remaining opponent.

Santa Clara can't be discounted, however, because there is bitter rivalry between the two squads and the Indians still remember that upset two years ago.

Local Exhibits Of Fall Flowers Win Prizes At Campbell Garden Club Chrysanthemum Show And Tea

Guests from far and near gathered for the Fall Chrysanthemum and Tea held last week. All were very gracious in their expression of the beauty, warmth and superior quality of bloom that existed not only on the tea table arrangements, but the exhibits as well.

Mantle and tea table arrangements were carried out with fall grape branches and roots, green grapes, bronze-gold chrysanthemums and ivy. Mesdames Anthony Leal and Charles Smith were in charge.

Causing much interest and comment was the display of yet unnamed chrysanthemum seedlings by Wallace Nursery. These will be named in 1954. Container arrangements in baskets and wooden wheelbarrows, containing approximately 175 different shapes, sizes, types and colors of chrysanthemums identified by flag name tags drew additional comment on this arrangement by Pohlhammer Nursery.

Mr. Tom Mansfield, judge of the show, presented his display of exhibition variety of large flowering chrysanthemums.

Winners of the show—all amateur gardeners were as follows: large flowering, 1st, 2nd, 3rd and special award Mr. Kenneth A. Romey of San Jose; special award Mr. Y. Yoshida of Campbell. Flowering chrysanthemums, 1st Mrs. Kenneth A. Romey; 2nd Mrs. Della Montgomery, 3rd Mrs. A. Buffington, special award Mrs. A. Buffington and Mrs. D. Montgomery, all of San Jose. Spoon chrysanthemum, Mrs. Camille Craddock 1st; Mr. K. A. Romey, 2nd; Mrs. A. Buffington 3rd and Mr. K. A. Romey special award.

ZONING ORDINANCE DELAYED; ANOTHER ANNEXATION PENDING

Second reading and adoption of the master zoning ordinance was deferred until Monday night at the request of planning consultant Nestor Barrett, who said that the accompanying master zoning map should be completed by that time.

Barrett Monday night also reminded the city council that public hearing on the master streets and highway plan was scheduled for December 3, the date of the regular meeting of the planning commission. This plan will have a bearing on future construction through use of State gas tax funds, establishing streets of major importance. October apportionment of state gas funds amounted to $4,560.35.

A request from Stone and Schulte for city annexation of a proposed subdivision located south of Campbell and west of Winchester avenue was deferred for two weeks. Mayor Richard Morton said that evidence of storm drainage, street maintenance, and street widths according to city standards should be known before any action by the city would be taken.

Council action on a request from Mission Taxi Company to raise its rates to 50 cents for the first mile and 30 cents for each additional mile was deferred for two weeks. They were told through their attorney Vincent Bruno, documented evidence may be submitted on their request at that time. They also asked to move their taxi stand to a position in front of Shaw's Bluebell cafe, from their present position beside IOOF Hall.

City public works department will report on the drainage problem at the corner of Hamilton and the San Jose-Los Gatos road to city council next week. Action was taken at the request of Walter E. Sutton of 90 E. Hamilton avenue who said rain forms a "lake" there because there is no run off. He said that the walkway built for Hamilton School will be flooded.

City Engineer Mark E. Thomas, Mayor Richard W. Morton, City attorney, Joseph A. Bonacina, and councilmen Gomes, Jensen, said they would attend a dinner meeting of the League of California Cities in South San Francisco November 17 when James Tormey, San Mateo, county superintendent of schools will speak on "Every Home a Liability".

E. Barbano requested C2 zoning on his Campbell avenue property next to his property already zoned C-2. Barrett said that since it was an extension of existing zoning, he had no objection.

Campbell And Los Gatos Gridders, Cheerleaders To Appear In Variety

A wide-range of top variety acts is promised Valley theatregoers in the Saratoga Lions Club-sponsored "Frolics of '53" to be given Wednesday, Nov. 17 and 18 by the Los Altos Foothill players at 8:30 p. m. in Saratoga Theater.

Comedy, ballet, pantomime and outstanding vocal talents combine in the show which has drawn wide acclaim in its various presentations on the Peninsula. The showing for the Saratoga Lions Club represents the club's annual fund raising effort for its community projects.

The show will capitalize on the current "football fever" sweeping West Valley communities and the finale will be highlighted by appearances of football players and cheerleaders from Campbell and Los Gatos Union High Schools.

The audience will be led in cheers and songs of the two schools whose teams will clash in the annual Thanksgiving grid classic at Campbell.

The "Football Finale" will follow the players' acts.

Mrs. Frederick Bigland is president of the Los Altos Foothill Players. Producer and director is Hal Brady and Arlene Perry is stage manager.

STAYS WITH YOU

Not so long ago there was a poem published in which the author set forth his lament on TV advertising. Seems that he wanted to buy something he had seen on the screen, but not having made a note of where it could be bought, he couldn't remember it the next day. Had the ad been in a newspaper, he could have gone back and looked it up. The poem was in itself a convincing argument, in a jocular way, for newspaper advertising, especially for the weekly, which is usually kept about the house for a considerable time and can easily be referred to. Henry Buccello, advertising manager for the Bank of America recently rated newspapers as a "top medium" for advertising. He says that an increasing number of national business concerns today are emphasizing newspaper advertising, especially in the smaller publications, because the printed message "will wait for you." You don't have to catch it in a split second.

THE ATOM AND THE ORCHARDIST

At a press conference Thursday in San Jose, Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay indicated that the removal of salinity in water of the lower San Francisco Bay through atomic power is today within the range of possibility, and that the government is making considerable research in this direction. He was unable to state when it might be realized, but said that the Navy has made and used fresh water converted over from salt water for many years, but on a small scale.

Of course, the waters would have to be impounded in the lower bay and the salt removed irrespective of tides. Someone in our generation may yet hit on the practical way of providing an abundant supply of water for irrigation or industrial use or even for human consumption through the medium of atomic forces. The system, once set up, would be valuable in many places. The secretary admitted he was none too familiar with the Reber plan, and would make no statement on its feasibility. In turn, he told what scientists were doing toward removal of sea water salinity.

At a $100-a-plate dinner that evening, Secretary McKay said that the Eisenhower administration seeks to remove the roadblocks in the path of the reclamation projects by using credit and funds of the federal government as supplementary to those of state and local agencies, a plan which he said would pool resources toward a sustained and orderly progress. The big, multi-purpose dams are to be built by the government, because local governments cannot undertake such projects. He said the administration supports reclamation, and will not drop any project now under way and will start new ones if justified and needed. He said that once a project is completed and has paid off, it will likely be turned back to the people.

Secretary McKay, former governor of Oregon said that his greatest interest in the last twenty years has been in the field of reclamation, and he feels that this is a problem which is important to the entire west coast. Indeed, he is correct in this observation.

SOMETHING NEW was added this week to the safety patrol system at the Rosemary School... on rainy mornings or other times when traffic is heavy and you happen by in front of the school you might be directed by a public address system which has been set up for operating by John Diehl and Randy Willoughby, the two patrol captains who figure that this will keep traffic moving in a safe manner... motorists entering the driveway in front of the school in a safe and careful manner will probably receive a "Thank You for driving carefully in front of our school", from one of the boys who then may be handling the P. A. system... but on the other hand, the motorist who forgets any of the traffic rules may be verbally reprimanded that more care be exercised for the safety of students.

DUCK HUNTING in Nevada was only fair for Frank Accardi of Campbell last week as he reported having seen lots more greenbacks fluttering about than canvasbacks... and those silver dollars they weight you down with there he said are a strain on the suspenders and require an extra hitch on the belt.

A T. V. FAN is Loretta, the 35-year old parrot owned by H. Leigh Cross of Leigh avenue... likes to look out of one eye at the action on the screen and every time a cat or a dog appears in the picture there is sure to be a "mee-ow" or a "woof, woof" from the parrot, and if an automobile is seen there is a shrill whistling of the first line of the song "In My Merry Oldsmobile"... there is other commentary from the bird at time always joining in on a good laugh... frets like anything if not allowed in the T. V. room.

BUS DRIVERS for local school districts do not confine all of their interest merely to keeping students in line and their bus on the road... one of them noticed a youngster with an "A" paper but with unkempt hair... inquiring as to the reason, the terse reply was, "no money"... the driver solved this by taking the lad to a local barber shop for a haircut, then provided the lad with a much needed spare pair of pants.

STORY WITH A MORAL as written by Del Ward for Campus Echo, the Campbell High School paper relates that... "Once upon a time there was a young coyote named Jimmy... walking leisurely through the woods one day he felt very hungry... "My, but a big hunk of fresh steer meat would hit the spot today," thought Jimmie who then sneaked into Farmer Brown's pasture, hurriedly killed and ate the farmer's prize bull, then feeling good, he sat down pointing his long nose to the moon and began to howl... Farmer Brown heard the howling, he did, and came with a gun and killed poor Jimmie... moral of the story being, "If you're full of bull, keep your big mouth shut."

THE PANEL discussion on "obedience" Tuesday night at the Moorpark School brought out much of the modern thinking on this subject as it applies to children in both the home and the school, but from the audience there came a few challenging questions... two teachers—Mrs. O. A. Benedetto and Oliver Pierce; two parents—Mrs. Clifford Traneth and Albert Barshow and two sixth grade students, Mary Hernandez and Bert Lathrop, comprised the panel with Principal John Duncan as moderator... shy at first the students later indicated the number of "don'ts" used in disciplining should be reduced as they grew older... teachers felt that mutual trust and a philosophy that every child is worth while, cultivates discipline, while parents brought out that group treatment of children of the same age level is often more effective than individual treatment at home where there is a one, two or three year difference in age... that certain chores are to be expected with allowances being in order for special work, which might be denied if not performed or for not yielding to discipline... all agreed that self-disciplining was important... audience question was what to do about the rebel kind who might take group discipline at school but was a terror at home, and another about obedience and its relation to discipline, contending that only by taking bribery from discipline do you get the old fashioned obedience... consensus of all was that the child of today is the adult of tomorrow and that encouraging self discipline is in itself teaching them to think which is the function of education and democracy.

Parents Hear Children's Author Speak On Books

"Books for Children" was the subject Mrs. Gregory Martin, local author of children's books and the mother of five, chose for her topic to Campbell Grammar Parent Teachers at their last meeting.

She stressed the fact that individual interests should guide parents and friends in choosing books of interest to children. She said this is especially important today in that television, radio and comics all cater to the vivid imagination of the younger generation. Mrs. Martin said that books will always be acceptable from toddler to teenager if they are chosen carefully, whether for color, fantasy, sport or just plain fun.

A short business meeting was held during which it was voted to donate $50.00 toward educational films. Refreshments were served by the sixth grade mothers.

The next Campbell Grammar School PTA meeting will be held December 15 at 7:30 p. m. with a Christmas program and lovely music presented by grammar school music students. All parents are urged to attend.

KEN WILSON, SR., IS NEW LEADER OF BSA TROOP 30

Kenneth Wilson Sr. accepted the post of Scoutmaster of Troop 30 at a meeting of Troop 30 Scouters November 9 at San Tomas School.

Wilson will replace Harry Hunter who resigned due to pressing personal business.

Hunter has served five years and appreciation of his leadership was acknowledged by William Cahill on behalf of the Scout Committee and scouters.

Plans for a Christmas party for Troop 30 were discussed at the November meeting. The party is slated for December 14 and will consist of a Court of Honor and Charter presentation by representatives of Santa Clara County Council.

Wilson outlined plans for a November 28 hike to enable boys to qualify as second class scouts.

REPORT CARDS ON WAY OUT, PTA GROUP FINDS

Report cards are not necessarily here to stay, was one of the points brought out at the Wednesday meeting of El Quito Park PTA. Guest speaker Miss Frances Guhlan, assistant professor in education, San Jose State, observed that the monthly percentage reports on the student's progress which was commenced about a century ago has undergone a change so that today report cards are broader in scope and have been abolished in many areas with the substitution of teacher-parent conferences.

Report cards, Miss Guhlan said, have been considered for many years as companion pieces to class photographs. When the grades are good, they are waved triumphantly under neighbor's noses and accumulated and sent to grandmothers every year, or stowed away with the child's first finger-painting and recognizable drawing of a cat.

Earlier during the business meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. Bruce Holmes, president, the group voted to have all evening meetings in the future to assure the fathers an opportunity to attend.

Mrs. Guy Boltz described a proposal of the executive board that four groups be formed among the would be both recreational and members, the purposes of which fund raising. The members voted to organize these groups and sheets were passed around upon which the assemblage signed up for the one of their choice: dancing, card playing, dramatics or music.

Mrs. Caswell Neal, first vice-president, introduced 4th grade teacher Miss Mary Margaret O'Donnell, who sang with great skill and without instrumental accompaniment, a negro spiritual. Mrs. Jane Sullivan's first grade class Mae Montmorency, 5th grade won the attendance award. Mrs. teacher, showed a number of report cards, enlarged many times, on the film projector, just prior

WITH A.M.A. YOU'LL DIAL FARTHER, FASTER

How A.M.A.—Automatic Message Accounting—streamlines telephone service with electronic magic

All over the West, people are making routine calls over much greater distances than they used to. We're always working to tailor service to the changing needs of those who use it... for example, making it possible for people to dial more of their calls over longer distances. To do this, we needed automatic equipment to record the information necessary for billing the out-of-town calls you dial. Bell Telephone Laboratories solved this complex problem with A.M.A., an amazing achievement in electronics.

A.M.A. cuts costs,
helps keep rates low

A.M.A. is fast, accurate, and greatly extends the scope of dial telephone service. It saves time... and money. And it's typical of what we're doing to build better, more efficient telephone service—keep costs down and make your telephone ever more useful.

YOUR TELEPHONE IS ONE OF TODAY'S BEST BARGAINS

Faster telephone service is one advantage of A.M.A., which makes possible direct dialing by customers of out-of-town calls. Already installed in some parts of the Pacific West, the equipment automatically keeps track of your out-of-town calls with uncanny accuracy, sorting them out and compiling them for your monthly bills. Other installations in the West will be made as the intricate equipment becomes available. For our eventual goal is customer dialing of long distance calls to all parts of the nation.

Christian Science Lesson - Sermon

The Golden Text for the Lesson—Sermon on the subject "Mortals and Immortals" to be read in Christian Science Society, Campbell, at the Country Woman's Club House, Sunday, November 15, is from I Corinthians: "As we have borne the image of the earth, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly" (15:49).

Other citations from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, comprising the sermon, will include the following passages:

Psalms: "He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death" (68:29).
Science and Health: "Man is not a pendulum, swinging between evil and good, joy and sorrow, sickness and health, life and death. Life and its faculties are not measured by calendars. The perfect and immortal are the eternal likeness of their Maker" (p. 246).

CAMPBELL'S 30'S LOSE TO SANTA CLARA, 21-7

An inspired Campbell 30's team could not stand up under the hard charging backfield of Santa Clara. Showing equal strength during the first half, Campbell held the Panthers to a 7 to 7 halftime deadlock. Campbell's only score came in the second quarter. A near impossible catch by Don Field and Tony Lo Bue's repeated long runs enabled the 30's to score. Lo Bue added the extra point. Santa Clara dominated the second half as they scored in the third and fourth quarters.

The Campbell 30's should be congratulated for their fine showing this season. They have lost only two games this season and hold one of the best 30 records in Campbell High history so far this season.

Campbell Baptists To Dedicate New Church Sunday

Campbell Baptist Church, 115 Sunnyside avenue will hold dedication services Sunday at 2:30 p.m. Rev. John Derfelt, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Los Gatos will deliver the main address of the occasion, emphasizing the dedication theme, "Except the Lord build the house they labor in vain who build it."

Rev. Gerald May of Hayward, May Press, will deliver an address to the church.

Rev. Lyle E. Cushman, pastor of the Church, said that the new building designed to seat between 200 and 150, has increased the total value of the property to $40,000. The new plant, built adjacent to the old structure, has incorporated a rustic motif in its design and decoration.

The public is cordially invited to the dedication service, the pastor said.

CUHS PTA Board Meets Approves Yearly Budget

The yearly budget, as presented by Mrs. Wayne Lenz, chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee, was approved by the Executive Board of the Campbell Union High School P. T. A. at their last meeting, held in the office of Mr. Laurence Hill, principal. Mrs. W. R. Morgan presided.

Mrs. L. A. Schad Weds John Daniel

Mrs. Cecile M. Schad of Payne Avenue, and John Daniels of San Jose, a former Pamilar avenue resident, were married at the 7 a. m. mass at St. Lucy's Church by Rev. Dennis Kennelley, Sunday.

The couple enplaned at 10 a. m. from San Francisco for a Hawaiian Island honeymoon. They were met in the Islands, and are now the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Keesling, former Campbell residents, who will host the newly-wedded couple during their two-week honeymoon.

Mrs. Daniels has lived in the Campbell area on Payne avenue since her marriage to Louis A. Schad of Dayton, Ohio, in 1914 and had been employed by the postoffice department in the Campbell branch since shortly after his death in 1941.

She is a graduate of San Jose State Normal School, and has taught in many of the schools in this area; her first assignment was at Carmel, Calif. She was principal of the Union District school for a number of years prior to her work in the local postoffice.

The Louis Pinards, her parents, together with her grandparents, were pioneer settlers in the Almaden and Madrone area of the valley, arriving in 1878.

Her father established the first hotel in Madrone and was postmaster and judge of that town.

She has one son, John E. Schad, who lives with his wife and three children in Santa Clara.
